March. On October twenty-four, 1932, President Stone H. Powell of the Trade and Labor council reply to that organ (intimate - request for information relative to the employment of labor in construction of the proposed water system. The next letter follows, in full:

In reply to your letter of recent date, the city commissioners desire to give the following answers to the questions included in your letter:

1. We favor night home porting.

We favor the prevailing scale of wages.

We favor the employment of home labor insofar as sufficient for home labor to fill.

We intend to employ union labor to the exclusion of non-union labor or non-union labor to the exclusion of union labor.

We represent all the citizens of this community and not all of them believe in other things and we feel that it would be absolutely unjust and ill-advised to take such a stand.

We will do everything in our power to enforce the first three propositions.

The city commission met this morning and unanimously endorsed the enclosed statements.

OVERHOLSER.

When arrangements were almost completed Friday for the opening of the Overholser's vaudeville season, Sunday, unexpected conditions arose which make it impossible to present the program as announced. As a result, the opening of a variety season will be postponed.

For the following week, commencing Sunday, May 21, booking was made at New York for presentation of the famous "Din Day" show, the Well-to-Do production, based on Rex Beach's novel of the same name.

LIBERTY.

Whether you come from Clan Campbell or Clan Campbell it's little difference so long as you show your loyalty for far-away Scotland by seeing Jessie Blair Sterling's Scottish Highlanders, seven "lads and lassies," who furnish the feature attraction of the new vaudeville bill at the Liberty theater Sunday. Helen and Olga, two girls in character songs and novelty dancing, also featured. Other acts include Agnes and Acquist, who present "Ten Minutes in a Dining Room"; Mabel, Jessie and Mole, comedy cyclists; cyclists, and Pauline and Edna, comedienne and comedienne.

If you were a beautiful young girl whose sister had fallen the victim of a wealthy young chap and that same fellow were to make love to you—and if the sister followed him to hour-hungry with the intention of shooting him, would you scream and run away or would you take command of the situation? Mary Pickford took the revolver out of the girl's hand, held the man at bay with it and, again, she was the victor. And she was the nurse, back through the wedding ceremony, in "The Mermalion Grind." Mary Pickford's latest big feature to be at the Empire theater, Sunday and Monday. A two- reel Keystone comedy and the weekly Paramount-Bray comedy also will be shown. To night Victor Moore and Anita King in "The Race" and a Keystone.

Calomel salivates! It's mercury. Calomel acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver. When calomel comes into contact with your liver it causes it, causing cramping and nausea.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your drugstore and get a 50-cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic, which is a harmless, vegetable substitute for dangerous and costly drugs.

Take it. Take it. Take it. And it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick. You'll have your liver back in a day.

If you take calomel today, you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides, it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tonic, you'll be feeling great, full of ambition and ready for work or play. It's harmless, pleasant and safe to give to children; they
